

Letter No. 2, is a closed, unopened envelope. Messages dated 13 October 1960, could be read with notes on the unopened pages.

1. CHISEL remarked on reading COMPASS No. 1 that COMPASS was disturbed at the situation. The word to be used is COMPASS was astonished and somewhat concerned, but not about himself. The America House will for a delivery over the wall is bad but not impossible. The corner of the building across from the cement factory has a window on the basement level facing into the House dining room and COMPASS thinks out of sight of the man at the front door and any other surveillance which might be on the street between the cement factory and the House. There are 2 1/4 inch bars spaced about six inches apart over the window but it is about three feet from the sidewalk and tossing a package with COMPASS waiting inside is not difficult. Messages for 13 Oct. a few paragraphs.

2. COMPASS has not had time or freedom to care either the outside of the house or coverage by our maids and house-servants inside. There is the job itself which keeps me occupied because of my fellow workers lack of coordination. COMPASS is trying to develop organization without stepping on people's feet--coverage by nosy people, vigilant types, and the press.

3. Oct. 15, 1960, COMPASS will explore stores for housekeeping supplies and will try to get somewhere near the downtown sites even if only for a quick look. COMPASS hopes the weather will be good. If the coverage is as heavy as last Sunday, COMPASS will stay away.

4. Will try to get plans of America House but this is a rough sketch:

5. There is heavy pedestrian traffic in the morning from about seven to eight. They get off the No. 17 bus and walk down the street to take a left to some type of printing and typography shop. I saw it Sunday but have forgotten the details such as names.

6. COMPASS gives the same story of his life to Russ., Amer., and everyone else he meets. His Russian is improving rapidly which may be good or bad. No attempt is made to conceal this at any time, and further all efforts are being made both to Americans and Russ. as to COMPASS devotion to his work for its own sake and desire to learn to speak Russ. No known problems here.

7. CHISEL delivered your message and is keeping all the material for COMPASS. Access to CHISEL by COMPASS is good. Messages to

O.P.S.

Compass did not walk down AZH10000 on this occasion. He turned his head to observe it.

8. Inside the hallway of entrance number two, an apparent above the telephone and a small desk. The outer doors were open and the inner doors were closed but were closed. It was a dreary, but fairly bright day with a sky completely covered with clouds. The temperature was around freezing, but not uncomfortably cold. The wind was from the north and was quite strong.

On June 28, 1960, the day after the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., the Memphis County Jail was the scene of a riot. The riot was the result of the fact that the jail was overcrowded and the inmates were angry at the fact that they were being held in the jail. It is difficult to determine whether the above is a black or white cat. The cat is as black as the blackest of cats. It is standing there, and it is known that it was described by ORANGE as a black cat. The Company suspects that it is not a black cat, but cannot confirm it by personal observation.

On this same occasion of Dec. 4, Compton heard from the other half of the spurs at the drop site was open and the light was on and all of the things were in place.

15. If Compass was at home he'd go ahead for the day.
